

Sue Anthony Award

The Foundation's highest award is named after our primary founder and originator of Reaching Out. Sue Anthony represented innovation, commitment, integrity and enduring contribution to families living with CdLS. Our recipient is a person who has followed this tradition by example, developing a creative approach to improve the quality of the Foundation and its ability to fulfill its mission.

1990 Gene Van Buren
1991 John King
1992 Jenny Rollo
1993 Cheryle Rawls
1994 Linda and Bill McCrae
1995 Alan Peaford
1996 Helga and Thomas Berninger
1997 David Fowler
1998 Christie Whetstone
1999 Mary Levis
2000 Karen Rekoski
2001 Sue Drexler
2004 Ian Krantz and Laird Jackson
2006 Antonie Kline
2008 Norm Winnerman
2010 Kari Cunningham-Rosvik, APRN
2012 Mary Opitz and Brian Luyt
2014 Molly and Garth Black
2016 Angie Young
2018 Joanne Gersuk

"In grateful appreciation for your dedication, insight, knowledge and efforts to advance the mission of this Foundation. You have set a standard of excellence for board members everywhere. A world of thanks from the families and friends of the Cornelia de Lange Syndrome Foundation."

